ATTACHMENT AND INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES AT NATIONAL LAND COMMISSION

National Land Commission (NLC) is an independent constitutional Commission established and operationalized under Article 67 of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010, the National Land Commission Act, 2012 and the National Land Policy, 2009 respectively.

In an endeavour to complement Governments efforts in creating opportunities for Kenyan youth to gain relevant experience and/or to expose them to work environment so as to increase their chances of employability, National Land Commission offers Attachments and Internships to relevant ongoing students and young graduates respectively. Attachments target students who are seeking attachment opportunities for the purpose of academic requirement for completion of a course. This is provided for a maximum period of three (3) months and must be backed up with evidence from an accredited institution of learning for either diploma or degree programs. Internships at the NLC target recent graduates who have completed their studies and have graduated or awaiting graduation. This program is provided for an initial period of three (3) months and the same may be renewed once.

In view of the above, the Commission is delighted to advertise the following thirteen (13) and thirty (30) Attachment and Internship vacancies respectively in various Directorates/ Departments with effect from 2nd January, 2018 as follows:
